

About Kensington

Kensington is an intermediary only lender, totally dedicated to supporting the benefits of professional financial advice and clear information to assist customers in selecting the right mortgage for their needs.

We recognise that buying a home or remortgaging can be challenging at the best of times and even more so in the post credit crunch environment, so we only deal with regulated mortgage advisers who are able to guide customers through the mortgage maze to find the most suitable product for them.

This means that you cannot access Kensington products directly, but you can do so through a mortgage adviser. We are unable to recommend an adviser, but if you need help in finding one in your area you could consider using www.unbiased.co.uk,* which offers free and confidential search services to find a local independent financial adviser (IFA) or mortgage adviser.

If you are an existing customer of Kensington and have any questions about your mortgage with us, you can call us on 0845 199 2222.

Our lines are open from Monday to Thursday, 8.30am to 8.30pm and on Fridays from 8.30am to 5.30pm.
